TREY WEBSTER COMMUNITY SERVICE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORM

The Trey Webster Community Service Memorial Scholarship was established in his memory after passing due to a brain aneurysm on July 16, 2020. On June 26, 2020, Trey graduated from high school as an Advanced Placement Scholar with Distinction, a Governor's School Scholar, and a Tennessee Scholar. He was a member of the Hendersonville High School Marching Band and, as a sophomore, he was the youngest AP Scholar in the history of Sumner County. Trey played the acoustic guitar, electric guitar, and alto saxophone. He was an Eagle Scout with Palms as well as a certified scuba diver. Trey loved to laugh and learn! He loved the Lord, cherished his friends, adored his family, loved his dog, and delighted in helping others. Trey's dream was to be an Ocean Engineer and then an Intellectual Property Attorney.
